KY. STATE DEFEATS ST. MARY'S ST. MARY'S OUTPLAYED IN THE SECOND HALF.

In two 30-minute halves, Ky. State defeated St. Mary's College by the score of 27 to 0. In the first half the two teams were evenly matched, but when Barbee, Shanklin and Dunlap were put in, Kentucky walked right through the game Green and White warriors and a touchdown was made in the first two minutes of play.

In the first half, State was penalized several times for being off-side. The story of the game is as follows:

Kentucky kicked off to St. Mary's, who made first down, but lost the ball on a forward pass. Rodes and Threlkeld made the distance for State. Rodes made 15 yards around right end, and Shelby booted the ball 35 yards. St. Mary's kicked to Johnston, who returned the ball 15 yards. State was penalized on a forward pass. Shelby punted to the 5-yard line. St. Mary's punted. Threlkeld made two yards through center. Hendrickson made five. Fox failed to gain. Webb blocked punt, and St. Mary's recovered the ball behind line, which gave State two points. St. Mary's put ball in play on 25-yard line. State got ball on downs. State made on-side kick. St. Mary's punted. State carried the ball to St. Mary's 25 yard line. First half ended.

Second Half.

Dunlap took left tackle; Barbee right half, and Shanklin right end. St. Mary's kicked to Rodes. Shanklin made 25 yards; Rodes took 10, and Threlkeld 5; Barbee made 5, and was given the ball again, when he went over for a touch-down. State kicked to St. Mary's, who punted. State lost ball on 3-yard line. St. Mary's punted, and Shelby booted the ball over the goal line, where Webb fell on it. St. Mary's kicked off. Rout replaced Threlkeld at fullback, and made 10 yards. Shelby punted. St. Mary's made first down, but lost ball on fumble. Shanklin made 45 yards Ky. made on-side kick and St. Mary's was thrown back over goal line for a safety. St. Mary's put ball in play on 25 yard line, and Shelby caught forward pass, running 30 yards for a touchdown. State kicked to St. Mary's, who could not make the distance, and punted to Johnston, who ran the ball back 25 yards. Rout made 10 yards and Barbee went over for a touchdown. During the last minute of play, State put the ball on St. Mary's 10-yard line.

BAGK TO THE PULPIT FOR TRANSYLVANIA

NEW COACH.

It has been rumored that the new Coach would be here Wednesday, but there is nothing in it. Mr. Robert Parks, who coached the back-field of the Blue and White team the first of the season, will be here on the 13th of November. He is very busy at present, and cannot possibly get away before that date. Coach Sweetland is so much improved that it is thought he will be coaching again in a few days. He saw the State-St. Mary's game Saturday, but refrained from commenting upon it.

PRIZE FOR TEAM.

Mr. Parker Easley, manager of the Auditorium Theatre, has announced that he will present to the winning team next Saturday night, seats for the Lew Dockstader Minstrels. There are no boxes at the Auditorium, but Mr. Easley says that the team shall have the best seats in the house. The Varsity and thirteen members of the Scrubs, the manager and the coach will be invited.

The team appreciates the kindness of Mr. Easley, for they, of course, will be in the seats of honor that night, which, by the way, will be decorated in the colors of the winning team, which will be Blue and White.

VICE-PRESIDENT WHITE RETURNS.

Prof. White, who has been absent from College for several weeks, returned to take up his work on Tuesday. He enjoyed his visit very much, and takes up his duties greatly refreshed. He was given quite an ovation in chapel Tuesday by the student body, who were delighted to see him back.

An annual event of the University of Nebraska is the Olympic meet between the sophomores and freshmen. The meet consists of all the regular Olympic events, including the Marathon race. The meet is to be held next week.

Y. W. C. A. CONVENTION.

The Sixteenth Annual Convention of the Y. W. C. A. of Kentucky and Tennessee met in Lexington Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The sessions of the convention were held in the Second Presbyterian church. Over a hundred delegates were entertained by the schools and church members of Lexington. These delegates represented 22 student associations and one city association. There were present at this convention 92 student delegates, two city delegates, seven faculty representatives, five state committee members, one national secretary, eleven convention speakers, two traveling secretaries and two city board members. Berea College had the largest delegation outside of Lexington.

At this convention the Division comprising Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana, was added to the Kentucky and Tennessee Division, and the center was changed from Nashville to St. Louis. Miss Belle Bennett, of Richmond, Ky., was elected President of the Association, and Miss McElroy, of St. Louis, was elected Secretary.

BOXING CLASS STARTS.

On Monday at 3:30, Mr. Milton met the class in boxing to talk over arrangements. About twenty men joined the class and the outlook is promising.

Six classes will be held during the week, and a member of the class may choose any three of them he wishes. Two classes will be held on Monday—one at 3:30, and one at 4:30. One class will be held on Wednesday at 4:30. Two classes will be held on Thursday—one at 3:30, and one at 4:30. One class on Saturday, at 2:30. The price agreed upon will be four dollars for 24 lessons.

Prof. Mustaine intends to arrange for an inter-class boxing match some time in the winter.

Although only about twenty have joined so far, it is expected that after Thanksgiving a large number of the football men will join the class.

"Duke" Trumble, the star guard of Indiana University, met with death as a result of blood-poisoning caused by a scratch on the foot received a few weeks ago.

EDITORIAL.

And is this T. U.? Ah, this was once a worthy foe! How well we remember those Thanksgiving games of years ago. What enthusiasm was shown! Old Kentucky University being on one side of the town and State College on the other, the town people were about equally divided in their support. Great was the display on those frosty Thanksgiving days. In the morning, after their hard practice of the weeks preceding, the two teams, headed by their respective coaches, took a walk into the country. While they were "rusticating," the loyal supporters were parading around town and gathering at the Phoenix to discuss the probable outcome. Even the stores caught the enthusiasm and had their windows decorated—one in red and one in blue. In one window would be displayed pictures of the two teams, the comparative height, weight, age, and strength of each team.

The whole town would give itself up to football, and everything was a confusion of Red and Blue.

About one o'clock the crowd would begin to arrive. K. U. took the north stand, while K. S. C. took the south one. The seats were filled by two o'clock, and by 2:30 the entire circle of the field was crowded with spectators. The north side was a mass of red, while the south one glittered in splendid blue. Hamilton College marched in and joined the north side, while the ever-loyal Hagerman and Sayre girls marched to the blue. There was much enthusiasm shown. The wearers of the Red would hurl this across the field:

"Hoo-gah-ha!"

Hoo-gah-ha!

K. U., K. U.! Rah! Rah! Rah!
Who are we? Who are we?
Kentucky University!"

Immediately would come back this defiant war-cry:

"S. C. K. Y., K. Y. K. Y.
S. C. K. Y. K. Y. K. Y.!
Hip Hi! Hip Hi!
I yell! I yell!
S. C. K. Y.!"

The game was one of those old slow ones, where only five yards had to be gained, and we confess that K. U. won one or two.

How we do wish that those games could be renewed. We wish that T. U. were stronger than Central, and that we could play them on Thanksgiving Day.

But there! We are to play them Saturday. Why not renew some of that old enthusiasm and show Transylvania that we have not forgotten the time when they were to be feared.

EXCHANGES.

The Football Situation at Some of Our Contemporary Institutions.

Cornell began practice for the Harvard game yesterday, with two hours signal practice. The back-field and ends are being drilled in tackling, running down punts and blocking kicks.

The Indians are holding secret practice regularly, in anticipation of Saturday's game, the time being taken up principally with signal drills.

Lafayette is celebrating its victory over Princeton with bonfires and parades. The team is beginning its two weeks' hard practice, in preparation for the game with Pennsylvania on Saturday week.

Brown is not at all discouraged by the result of the Harvard game Saturday, as may be seen by the following extract from an editorial in the Brown Herald. The next two weeks will see an improvement and development, which will make Yale fight her hardest, and which will end the season by defeating Carlisle.

At Michigan, Coach Yost has not as yet definitely decided upon the line-up of the Varsity team, the center and guard positions being shifted frequently.

SILVER CUP.

The members of the Senior class appreciating what Coach Sweetland has done for the University, and having such a respect and love for him, have presented the Coach with a beautiful silver loving cup. Engraved on the cup are the words:

"To the Coach of the 1909 Football Team from the Class of 1910."

The cup is a handsome one and well selected. Mr. Sweetland appreciates the token very much, and says that he will keep it as long as he lives.

The Coach is also the recipient of a token of the regard the Sophomore class has for him. It is a gold watch charm, having the proper inscription on one side, a Masonic emblem on the other, and on the inside a miniature picture of the 1909 football team.

Another expression of friendliness for the Coach, and one which he appreciates very much, is a bunch of large and fragrant red and white carnations, presented to him by the members of the Transylvania Football team.

The two Universities are showing a spirit this year which was never shown before, and this is one of the steps that will go a long way towards bringing the two rivals closer together, and which will help them to unite to fight the common foe.

Mr. Sweetland, in speaking of the game Saturday, said that in return for the friendly gift, he would keep most of the first team out of the game, so that State might not roll up too big a score on the Crimson heads.

MINING ENGINEERING SOCIETY

The Miners met on the night of Wednesday, Nov. 3d, to elect officers for the rest of the year. The following were elected: R. A. Lowry, President; B. D. Williams, vice-President; R. G. Stevens, Secretary and Treasurer.

Mr. C. K. Bain gave a very interesting and lucid talk on "Methods of Taking Railroad Topography."

Mr. R. G. Stevens favored the society with a paper which he had prepared on "The Coals of Big Sandy River, Ky."

Prof. Norwood also gave an interesting talk on Mining Engineering in general.

A big time is expected when the new Mining Building is opened. The Professors are going to give the Miners a blow-out, and the Miners are going to reciprocate the favor.

The Neville Literary Society will give its annual dance in the University gymnasium on Thanksgiving evening. Invitations will be issued to all students of the University, members of the Faculty and the members of Central University Football team.

The "Monday Club" held its regular meeting on the evening of Nov. 8th in the Agricultural Building. About 35 members of the club were present. Dr. Terrell read a very interesting paper on Modern Greece, which was followed by discussions from Professors MacKenzie, Miller and others. Light refreshments were served.

Night Shirt parade as a Result of Auburn Game.

The gay and mad enthusiasm caused by the favorable score against the mighty Auburn team could not be confined in the breasts of Vanderbilt's followers Saturday night without an outbreak of some sort. As the outcome of this state of affairs, a veritable army, somewhat resembling Coxey's Army, of enthusiasts all decorated in nocturnal garb, gathered at Kissam Hall about 7:30 on the eve of the victory.

Dr. James Mark Baldwin, a Princeton man, has been chosen head of the Gal. SEVEN ----- at the Carlyle notional university, to be founded in Mexico City, under government auspices. He will direct the educational system of Mexico.

Once more Technology has defeated Harvard in their annual cross-country race. The score was 62-27. The work of every man on the team was excellent and though the time was not record-breaking, it was excellent for the day.

Gift to the Library.

A photograph of the Jean Luzac Tablet, erected this year in Leyden, Netherlands, has been recently presented to the Library by Rev. Wm. Elliott Griffiths, of Ithaca, N. Y. In the lower central portion of the tablet is permanently located a seal of the University, which is surrounded on both sides by the seals of the City and State. Jean Luzac was a good friend of Washington and Jefferson. He contributed articles to the Leyden Gazette strongly advocating the just cause of the American Revolution. The Tablet was given by the Netherlands Society of Philadelphia.

Alabama is still in the running, not having been scored up to date, and this certainly entitles her to some consideration at the hands of the dopists in figuring out the standing of the teams, but the score Alabama will make against Tennessee two weeks from now and the score Tech will make against Georgia will serve as a process of elimination there, as will the score of the Tech-Clemson game. —Atlanta Journal.

Notre Dame will meet Michigan at Ann Arbor on Saturday and a close game is expected.

The championship of the Missouri Valley will be settled Saturday in the Nebraska-Kansas game.

THE HEN, THE DUCK AND THE NON-ADVERTISER.—A FABLE.

A duck which faithfully stuck to business during the summer and laid several dozen of large fawn-colored eggs, complained that she wasn't appreciated. "See that hen over there," said the duck, "she hasn't laid as many eggs as I have, nor as big, but she has books written about her and verses composed in her honor, while nobody is saying a word about me."

"The trouble with you is," said the wise rooster that was standing near, "that you don't tell the public what you have done. You lay an egg and waddle off without saying a word, but that sister of mine never lays one without letting every one in the neighborhood know about it. If you want to cut any ice in this community you must learn to advertise.—Exchange.

Great preparations are being made by the two local universities for the football game on Stoll Field next Saturday. On comparative showings the two teams do not appear nearly so evenly matched as in former years, but the rivalry of the two institutions and the spirit which prompts them to fight for victory all the way and to do everything in their power to excel each other in their yells and songs continues to make the State-Transylvania game one of the biggest intercollegiate contests in Kentucky. Both universities will work overtime this week rehearsing old songs and yells and learning new ones, and the struggle on the opposite bleachers will be almost as interesting as the one on the gridiron. State University has determined to keep Transylvania many yards from a touch-down and the rival school has declared that the Crimson will score and never be out of the running for the victory.—Lexington Herald.

Fate of the Pad Crank.

There was a football player
Who padded ears and nose,
Then stitched a padded layer
Where shoulder blades arose.
Pads wrapped and pads suspended,
Encircled him, they tell,
And when the season ended
He reached a padded cell.

The President of DePauw has threatened to take drastic measures if the girls do not regard more seriously some of the rules in regard to Sunday evening callers.

The Oregon Emerald suggests that figures be placed on the backs of football players, just as is now done with contestants in track meets. By such a method the spectators would be enabled to distinguish the players readily, and could tell who are making the star plays. At present it is the man who possesses some peculiar feature in his appearance, such as red hair or length, or avoidupois, or who wears a bandage, who receives the most notice. With the numerals on their backs, applause could be given to those really doing the best playing.

Wilson, the plucky Navy quarterback, is still holding on, and although little hope of his ultimate recovery is offered, the fact that he has survived so long is in itself a favorable sign. Great interest in his case is felt throughout the country.

One thousand and eighty freshmen have registered at Cornell this year.

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,

Who never to himself hath said,
'D— military?'"

Wisconsin's football team has been greatly strengthened by the addition of three men—Muckleston, Messmer and Cunningham, who have just returned with the Badger base ball team from a tour of Japan. One of the greatest mass-meetings in the history of the institution was held last Monday evening for the purpose of welcoming home the team, and showing appreciation of the great work accomplished by its trans-oceanic trip. Each of the nine players described certain incidents of the trip and expressed the greatest appreciation of the way in which they were received in the Flowery Kingdom. Genkwan Shibata, the Japanese student who accompanied them, acted as business manager, officially presented the University of Wisconsin with a banner from the students of the Keio University, bearing the inscription: "A hundred thousand welcomes to Wisconsin."

Carnegie Medals.

The Carnegie Hero Fund Commission recently rewarded fifty persons for acts of bravery and illustrious conduct. With the exception of one award, made to a citizen of Canada, the persons remembered by the Commission are residents of the United States, 22 living in Ohio. Approximately $33,000, 23 silver and 27 bronze medals were awarded. Of the 50 heroic acts approved, 14 of the persons responsible for them met their death. In these cases the next of kin received the award. Deeds of heroism during the flood of Athens, O., March 14, 1907, received a greater part of the attention of the commission. The acts of courage brought to the attention of the commission included saving children from fast running passenger trains, rescues from flooded rivers, stopping unmanageable runaway horses and carrying persons from burning buildings.

Three Deaths Cause Anti-Football Sentiment.

An unfortunate coincidence of three fatal accidents on college gridirons last Saturday week has put put football on the defensive again. Not since agitation in 1905 has the opposition against football taken such an active form. College Presidents as a whole, however, believe that the game, as it is played under the new rules, is as safe or safer than any other outdoor contest. Prof. Patterson, of Michigan, points out the fact that in 20 years at Michigan there has never been a death in football, while every year some one has been drowned while canoeing.

President Harry Pratt Judson says: "The death of the West Point player is unfortunate and will give football a black eye with some persons. It has not changed my attitude. Accidents may occur in any sport, but I think they are less frequent and less dangerous in college football than in any other branch."

As an incentive in calling forth so many opinions, the death of Eugene Byrne, tackle on the West Point team was the greatest. It occurred in the second half of the Harvard-West Point game Saturday. Byrne dived under the interference for a mass-play. The men piled up on him, twisting and breaking his neck. He was picked up with every nerve paralyzed except those of the head and face. The others who were killed were Roy Spybuck, of the Haskell Indian second team, and Michael Burke, of Shenandoah, Penn., a player on the team of the Medico-Chirurgical College at Philadelphia.

One result of these casualties has been the canceling of West Point's schedule for the remainder of the season. The annual Army-Navy game went with the rest. At Philadelphia the students of the medical college held a mass meeting and abolished all athletics. The schedule of the Haskell second team also was canceled.

College presidents as a whole do not think that the game should be abolished. Many of them, however, take the stand that the game has not been freed entirely of its dangerous features. Former President Wm. Tucker of Dartmouth, declares that the mass plays must be entirely done away with if the game is to survive. David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford, expressed the opinion that the injury to Byrne was an added argument for the adoption of Rugby football of the type employed by Stanford and California.

Among the freshmen out for football at Yale is Walter Camp, Jr., son of the father of football at Yale. Young Camp is a halfback and the Yale grads of another day say that he plays like his father. He is about the same build, is tall and light. He played at Westminster school at Simsbury, and will be heard from at Yale.

There will be no Navy-Pennsylvania game. Red and Blue will not meet Midshipman on the gridiron.
